A NIGHTMARE

Gives point to the fact that excessive or irregular eating disturbs the digestion. Nightmare or night hag has its day time correspondence in the undue fullness after eating, with the belching and sour or bitter rising so often experienced after too heavy or too hearty eating.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures dyspepsia or bad stomach. When the weak stomach is strengthened and invigorated the whole body shares in the increased strength derived from food properly digested and perfectly assimilated.

"I was a victim of sleeplessness and extreme nervousness induced by chronic indigestion and I felt heavy tired and worn out continually," writes Miss Mary Smith, of 1013 No. Washington Street, Colorado Springs, Colo. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was the only medicine which relieved me. Within a week after I began using it that heavy oppressed feeling after meals had left me, and I found that I was able to sleep better than for months previously. My appetite was gradually restored, general system was toned up, nervousness became a thing of the past and I have now been in splendid health for over nine months.

Sometimes a selfish dealer tempted by the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines will offer the customer a substitute as being "just as good" as the "Discovery." It may be better for him because it pays better, but it is not as good for you, if you want the medicine that has cured others, and which you believe will cure you.

100-page Doctor Book sent free on receipt of 10 one-cent stamps to cover postage only.

YOUR HAT

May Be a Stylish One, But It Makes Trouble.

A man usually buys a hat that "in style," but the modern hat for men has lots to answer for.

Baldheads are growing more numerous every day. Hats make excellent breeding places for the parasitic germs which sap the life from the roots of the hair.

When your hair begins to fall out and your scalp is full of dandruff it is a sure sign that these countless germs are busily at work.

There is but one way to overcome the trouble and kill the germs—that way is to apply Newbald's Herpicide to the scalp—it will kill the germs and healthy hair is sure to result.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

STRONG Again

is what Mrs. Lucy Stovall, of Tilton, Ga., said after taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Hundreds of other weak women are being restored to perfect health by this remedy. YOU may be well if you will take it.

Indigestion causes nearly all the sickness that women have. It deprives the system of nourishment and the delicate organs peculiar to women suffer—weak, and become diseased.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that may be eaten. It nourishes the body, and rebuilds the weak organs, restoring health and strength. Kodol cures indigestion, constipation, dyspepsia, sour risings, belching, heartburn and all stomach disorders.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

A series of thunderstorms of terrific violence swept over greater New York yesterday. Lightning struck in many places and a number of people were killed by the bolts.

At Coney Island a particularly heavy bolt descended in the midst of scores of bathers and sightseers, and the victims numbered nearly two score. Five people were killed outright and 28 were injured, all of them being knocked senseless.

Eight of those rendered unconscious were seriously hurt and had to be removed to the hospital.

The storm struck Coney Island about 4:30 p. m. The clouds were so dense that it seemed as though darkness was about to fall. The lightning flashed incessantly, and there were terrific peals of thunder.

The day had been pleasant up to early in the afternoon and large crowds were resorting to the beach. The boardwalk was crowded, and when the rain began to descend there was a quick rush to shelter. A large number of bathers and spectators were driven under the boardwalk in front of the Parkway baths. The walk at this point is about eight feet high.

Several people were under the walk, clustered about or near a large flagpole, which goes through the boardwalk and has about six feet of its base in the sand. The bolt of lightning struck the top of the pole, shattering it and, going down, seemed to burst with a terrific report right in the midst of the people under the boardwalk. They were hurled in every direction or prostrated where they stood. Five were killed instantly and 28 were injured, eight of the latter being severely shocked and burned.

Twenty others were rendered unconscious, but they soon revived and were able to proceed to their homes. The spot where the bolt struck looked like a battlefield. The dead and injured, still and white, or gasping and twitching, lay scattered in every direction, while those who were uninjured were shouting and screaming hysterically. The rain was descending in torrents and the lightning and thunder kept up their flash and roar, adding to the terrors of the scene.

While the storm was at its worst, immediately after the five persons were killed, many of the women dropped to their knees and began to pray. The men were almost as badly frightened as the women, and many, with their families, started on the run for the Brighton Beach Hotel in a rain that drenched them to the skin in the first 10 feet. It was at least an hour before the crowd had become calmed so that persons could start for their homes and many of the women had to be carried to the cars.

The tragedy seemed to strike terror to all the people along the beach, the news of it spreading with great rapidity, and in an almost incredibly short time the beach was deserted.

When the bolt struck the flagpole it cut the halyards holding an immense American flag. The flag dropped to the crotches of the flagpole and hung there, seemingly at halfmast over the scene of death.

At the same time the tragedy was enacted at Coney Island a bolt struck a cedar tree at Forty-ninth street and Harway avenue, Gravesend Beach, a short distance from Coney Island. Many people had taken shelter from the rain under it. The bolt struck and killed Henry Ralaidell. His son, William, 13 years old; David McCauley and John Appel were severely shocked.

Lightning struck at various points in New York city. A store in Flushing avenue, Brooklyn, was burned and a car in Sixth avenue, Manhattan, was set on fire, but the occupants escaped unhurt.

The electric light and the telephone wires in Bellevue Hospital were struck several times, extinguishing all the lights and raising much alarm among the patients.

Reservoirs Burst.

Loss of life and immense damage to property followed the bursting of reservoirs north of Bridgeport, Conn., as a result of the unprecedented fall of rain early yesterday. The precipitation in Connecticut Saturday night and yesterday morning reached a total of seven inches. The dam at Ward's Mill and Easton went out at 2 o'clock this morning, sending a great body of water down through the town of Trumbull. In a short time the dam at the paper mill reservoir broke. There was no warning to the people who lived on the banks of what is usually a small watercourse. The house occupied by John Lesco, his wife and several children was picked up by the flood and carried a mile below. The Lesco family were asleep at the time, and were rescued after a perilous journey. A house occupied by Michael Moran was hurled against the Berkshire bridge and smashed to kindling wood, and it is believed that Moran was drowned. Police and firemen went to the rescue and saved several lives.

Beaten by Preachers. Rev. A. W. Gehres and Rev. W. K. Richardson, well-known ministers of Voedsburg, Ind., started out Saturday night to see if the law is being obeyed by the saloons. In order to get a good point of observation they hid themselves in an empty box car. They were seen in the car and recognized by friends of saloon men.

When they started home, after having taken observations for a couple of hours, they were followed along the railroad. Near the Wabash Clay Works the two ministers were accosted by the men following them and questioned regarding their presence in the car. The men, whose the ministers recognized as saloonkeepers, became abusive and the ministers were drawn into an altercation which they tried to avoid.

Embodied, the two men attacked the ministers. The Rev. Mr. Gehres was hit on the head and the Rev. Mr. Richardson, who is much smaller, managed to hold his assailant (the Rev. Mr. Gehres' antagonist had fled). Both of the ministers turned on the second man, and were giving him a drubbing when he pleaded for mercy and was released.

A Long Walk. A dispatch from York, Pa., says Mr. and Mrs. Samuel MacShifflet, who but a few weeks ago were well-to-do farm tenants in Rockingham county, Va., are now walking from York, Pa., to their former Virginia home, a distance of several hundred miles.

MacShifflet, misled by a newspaper account of the great prosperity prevailing in York and scarcity of labor there, came to York recently.

On the train to York MacShifflet lost his pocketbook containing all the money he had, $70. The pair arrived there stranded, and spent the night at police headquarters.

Just before starting, MacShifflet said: "We are now going back to our home in Rockingham county, and we expect to make every mile of the trip on foot, because we will not beg or call upon charity to help us. Virginia people are too proud to beg, generally."

"I think we can get enough to eat by working for the farmers along the way. I only hope my wife can stand the trip. She is not strong, and the fatigue may be too much for her."

Sickening Shivering Fits of Ague and Malaria, can be relieved and cured with Electric Bitters. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50c, guaranteed."
